

Illinois Inventory of Archaeological Sites

This note accompanies a series of tables summarizing the current status of the Illinois Inventory of Archaeological Sites prepared by Nicholas Klobuchar.

The first document is a running summary of the increase in site records since 1970 and information about other aspects of the data.

The second document is a summary of 2014 activity by county.

Table three is a list by county of site numbers that have been de-commissioned for a variety of reasons.

The next document identifies information needed to complete site forms, followed by a listing of missing site forms.

Finally, there is a listing of site file activity for 2014 organized alphabetically by county and then by amount of activity in each county.
